

Overview

InCites is a citation-based evaluation tool for academic and government administrators to analyze their institutional productivity and benchmark their output against peers and aspirational peers in a national or international context.

For information about the current release of InCites, see

- Data and Subscription Notifications¹
- What's New In Research Performance Profiles?²
- What's New In Global Comparisons?³
- What's New in Institutional Profiles?⁴
- What's New in Essential Science Indicators?⁵
- What's New in Journal Citation Reports?⁶

Fields

Name	Value
trs_topicType	concept
product	InCites

-
1. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/7624-TRS.html> (Data and Subscription Notifications)
 2. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/whatsNewGroup/whatsNewRPP.html> (What's New in Research Performance Profiles?)
 3. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/whatsNewGroup/whatsNewGC.html> (What's New In Global Comparisons?)
 4. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/whatsNewGroup/whatsNewInstProfiles.html> (What's New in Institutional Profiles?)
 5. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/whatsNewGroup/whatsNewESI.html> (What's New in Essential Science Indicators?)
 6. <http://ipscience-help.thomsonreuters.com/incitesLive/whatsNewGroup/whatsNewJCR.html> (What's New in Journal Citation Reports?)